SUPPLIES & TOOLS:

- 1 large glass cylinder, approx. 12"x6"
- 52 yds of 6/32" cording
- Flameless candle(s)
- Tape
- Scissors

DIRECTIONS:

1. Cut two pieces of cording 2-ft long.
2. Tape ends of cording to wall horizontally.
3. Cut six 8-yd pieces of cording.
4. Fold each piece in half. Wrap looped end around horizontal cord and put the end through the loop tying the cord on the horizontal piece. Repeat with other 5 pieces keeping all spaced 2" apart.
5. Looking at all strings hanging, skip the first string of cording and take the next two in hand. These two pieces are not from the same knot tied to taped cording. Tie a knot 2", vertically, from the taped cording. Repeat this step with other strings until one string is left single like the first.
6. With one single strand on the end, take the string next to it and tie a knot. Continue to do this until all strings are in knots across from one another.
7. At this point, diamond shapes and a row of netting should be completed.
8. Continue the same pattern until only 4" of cording is left hanging at bottom.
9. Take other piece of 2-ft cording. Tape on wall horizontally where the end of net is. Tie knots onto that last taped piece, like first taped piece, to finish the net.
10. Cut four 3" pieces of cording.
11. Take the completed net and wrap around the glass cylinder.
12. Connect the net with the 3" pieces of cording on the side to encase cylinder.
13. Cut one 36" piece of cording and weave it through the top of the net.
14. Pull up 2 loops from that weave for the hanging apparatus.
15. Tie off the ends of large piece of cording.
16. Insert 1 flameless candle or multiple small flameless candles and hang.
