Embroidery How To's

Courtesy Jo-Ann Stores, Inc.

Supplies:

Monk's Cloth
Embroidery Yarn or Floss
Tapestry Needle
Embroidery Scissors

Directions:

1. Straight Stitch. This is the basic stitch; all others are variations. Stitch under one block of vertical threads and over one block of horizontal threads to form a straight stitch. Continue to complete your design.
2. Slant Stitch Up. Bring the yarn out of the last block of vertical threads as shown, then up several rows as indicated and under the first vertical block to complete the pattern.
3. Slant Stitch Down. This stitch is the same as the Slant Stitch Up but worked in the opposite direction. Bring the yarn out of the last block of vertical threads, then go down several rows as indicated and under the first vertical block to continue the pattern.
4. V Stitch. Go under two vertical threads on the right half of one block. Bring yarn up several rows as indicated and go under four threads. Bring yarn back down and under the remaining two threads of the bottom block.
