SUPPLIES & TOOLS:

- Green mulberry paper
- Red cardstock
- Tan scrap paper
- Cardinal print fabric
- Iron-on interfacing
- Metal-rimmed tag
- Red jingle bells
- Five 12" lengths of thin ribbon in complementary colors
- Red embroidery floss
- Black pen
- Paper trimmer
- Circle punch
- Small hole punch
- Scissors
- Pinking shears
- Glue stick

DIRECTIONS:

1. Cut two 3¾"x11½" panels of mulberry paper. Crease along center of panels to create tent shapes. Apply glue to the back of one panel and attach the second to it, before the glue dries.
2. Apply iron-on interfacing to the wrong side of a piece of fabric, with a focal point at the center. Trim with pinking shears to about 2¾". Using glue stick, mount to a rectangle of red cardstock. Trim with pinking shears. Glue to the front of the tent.
3. Punch a large hole in the upper left corner. Punch multiple times to achieve a hole large enough to accommodate all the ribbon. Tie on ribbons and jingle bells.
4. Punch a circle of tan paper and adhere to the metal-rim tag. Write name on paper. Punch a small hole at the top of the tag and tie onto the ribbons with embroidery floss.
