

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:

Beth Shivak
Corporate Communications
330-463-8661 | beth.shivak@joann.com

Jo-Ann Upholds Tradition; Stores Will Be Closed Thanksgiving Day

HUDSON, OHIO (November 9, 2015) – Jo-Ann Fabric and Craft Stores, the nation’s leading fabric and craft specialty retailer, announced that in keeping with its longstanding commitment to family values, it will close all of its 850 stores on Thanksgiving Day.

“We greatly appreciate our Team Members and customers, and are proud to continue our tradition of being closed on Thanksgiving Day, allowing all to spend the day with their families,” said Jill Soltau, chief executive officer and president at Jo-Ann. “For those customers who wish to browse or shop on Thanksgiving, we offer an amazing and inspirational selection of fabrics and crafts online at joann.com.”

Jo-Ann Fabric and Craft stores will re-open for business at 6 a.m. on Black Friday. Products and inspirational projects from Jo-Ann are also available online at joann.com.

Visit joann.com/holiday for holiday inspiration and products or for more information on daily store hours and locations visit Joann.com.

About Jo-Ann Stores, LLC

Jo-Ann Fabric and Craft Stores, the nation’s largest fabric and craft retailer with locations in 49 states, was founded in 1943 as a single retail store. Today, 850 Jo-Ann stores across the country provide consumers all the fabrics, craft supplies and inspiration they need, conveniently under one roof. For additional information, visit joann.com. To make creative connections, visit joann.com/community.

###