Craft with Jo-Ann

SUPPLIES & TOOLS:

- Large picture frame with glass
- 4 turned table legs & brackets for attaching to back of frame
- L-brackets and screws for securing photo panel to underside of frame
- Martha Stewart Crafts™ acrylic paint: Gray Wolf, Porcelain Doll, Wedding Cake, Linen
- Sandpaper: course & fine
- White household candle
- Foam core board
- Linen fabric
- Batting or felt
- Adhesive or tacky glue

DIRECTIONS:

1. Attach hardware to frame for removable legs.
2. Paint legs and frame Gray Wolf; apply 2 coats for good coverage. Let dry.
3. Rub candle onto all areas of frame and legs where a distressed look is desired.
4. Paint 2 coats of a mixture of all the whites onto all surfaces. Let dry.
5. Sand lightly with course sandpaper, then with fine grit sandpaper.
6. Prepare the insert for the frame: Cut foam core to fit into the opening. Cut a layer of batting or felt slightly smaller than the foam core; attach to foam core. Cover all with linen fabric and glue to foam core on the underside, stretching tightly.
7. Attach various photos to the linen, with your choice of adhesive. Attach to the underside of the frame, using L-brackets and short screws, inserting the glass first.
8. Attach legs.
9. Bind off. Weave all ends in.
10. On both short ends finish off each with a row of sc holding 2 strands of Blue Agave. Weave in ends.

Finished throw measures approximately 61" x 35".
